

The Gromble's Guide to the Gruesome (part One)

Welcome
to the Monster Academy, you little scab scratchers! You didn't get in on your vile looks alone. You are the smartest of your kind. So tell me how you plan to scare those horrid humans. You first, Ickis!

Do I have to go first?
Well, okay. I'm lekis
and some people think I'm cute. I sneak up on them in the dark.

Then I grow to an amazing size and /
show them a thing
or two about cute!

My name's Oblina.
I give people horrifying
nightmares by tickling
their brains.

I'm Krumm.
I like to scare
teenagers
when they
least expect
it. I use my secret weapon.

You see... stink!

Well, I see you monsters do know something, but you still have much to learn. By the time you graduate, you will be experts at reducing humans to saggy-kneed lumps of goo!
